As we continue our Advent journey, this Sunday brings us the powerful and challenging voice of John the Baptist. In Matthew 3:1-12, John emerges as a prophetic figure in the wilderness, calling for repentance and preparing the way for the Lord. His message is as provocative today as it was then: "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand!"

John's urgent call invites us to examine our hearts and lives during this season of preparation. Advent is not just about preparing externally for Christmas celebrations but about making space within ourselves for the coming of Christ. Repentance, then, is an opportunity to turn away from sin and toward the love and mercy of God.

John also warns against complacency and self-assurance based on heritage or status, reminding his listeners that true repentance bears fruit. He calls us to produce good fruit as evidence of an interior transformation—a life marked by faith, hope, and love.

The imagery of John the Baptist as a voice crying out in the wilderness is a stark reminder that our world, too, often finds itself in spiritual wilderness. His call to make "straight the paths" reminds us of our mission to bring justice, peace, and reconciliation into our own areas of influence.

John speaks of one "more powerful" who is coming after him, recognizing his role as a precursor to Jesus. As we prepare for the coming of Christ, how can we also be heralds of His presence? Let John's passionate call to repentance inspire us to renew our commitment to live as disciples, ready to meet the Lord when He comes.

May this Advent season be a time of spiritual renewal, as we heed John the Baptist's call and prepare our hearts for welcoming the Savior with joy and readiness.

Names for Christmas Food Baskets

If you know someone who could benefit from a food basket this Christmas, please call the St. Patrick Church parish office at 304-269-3048 or email secretary@spchurchweston.net. Please ask the person or family if it is okay before adding their name to the list. Please do not add someone who is already receiving a food basket from another church or organization. By doing this, we are able to help more people who otherwise might be overlooked.

When you add someone to the list, you are responsible for distributing the basket of food to them or for making sure they are able to pick up the basket themselves.

We need the following information when you add someone to the list:

- Family name
- Family size (broken down by the number of adults and number of children)
- A contact number for the family.
- Your name and phone number.
